European Parliament

Welcome to the

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Welcome to the European Parliament, the heart of democracy in the European Union, which represents 450 million people. The European Parliament's official seat is in Strasbourg, France, but much of its work takes place in Brussels.

There's plenty to see, and visiting the Hemicycle or the Parliamentarium visitors' centre will explain how the European Parliament works and what it does for European Union citizens.

Europe's broader past is vital for understanding the European Union of today and the House of European History offers a unique insight into Europe's shared history.

All activities are free of charge and most are available in each of the European Union's 24 official languages. Details can be found on the European Parliament visitors' website.

Experience the

Discover the European Parliament as never before at the groundbreaking Parliamentarium, one of the main tourist attractions of Brussels.

Adults and children alike can discover European democracy through an array of dynamic multimedia displays, aided by a personal media guide.

See how the Members of the European Parliament represent you in a stunning 360° cinema. Journey through Europe on a giant interactive map and see the impact of the European Union in each Member State. Or listen to people from around Europe share their stories of how the European Union affects them.

Students can step into the shoes of Members of the European Parliament in the Role Play game. Players face hard decisions as they negotiate laws that will impact millions across Europe. Advance booking by email only.

Discover the

HEMICYCLE

Visiting the Hemicycle is a great way to get to grips with the workings of the European Parliament. Soak up the parliamentary atmosphere, experience how Members of the European Parliament work and, if visiting during a plenary sitting, watch European law being debated.

Individuals visit at their own pace with a multilingual media guide. Engaging speakers can also provide explanations in greater depth at weekly talks (Mon. 11:00 and 15:00 in English or French; other languages offered if available; additional talks in summer). No advance booking required.

Groups are welcomed to the European Parliament by our staff, in all European Union languages. A tailored programme includes a visit to the Hemicycle as well as an interactive and wide-ranging briefing. Please book online 3 months in advance; topics of interest may be catered for if indicated when booking.

ORGANISE YOUR VISIT AT STATION EUROPE

Station Europe is the perfect place to start your visit to the European Parliament in Brussels. Located in the original building of the Brussels-Luxembourg train station, Station Europe will guide you through all there is to explore on the campus.

See the European Parliament come alive with an augmented-reality model of the campus. Or improve your knowledge of how the European Union impacts your region and life at touchscreen tables, as well as much more.

Don't miss during your visit

The Sakharov Walk of Freedom - learn about the Sakharov Prize for Freedom of Thought.

The Citizens' Garden - take a break during your visit in an oasis steeped in cultural heritage.
